

Richland U.S. Courthouse and Federal Building 50th Anniversary Celebration

As steward of more than 400 historic buildings, the U.S. General Services Administration, in partnership with the U.S. District Courts, the Department of Energy and the Department of Veterans Affairs, is pleased to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Richland U.S. Courthouse and Federal Building. The public is invited to join us throughout the month of November for a series of special events to commemorate the building's rich history in the community.

50th Anniversary Celebration

Thursday, November 5 at 3:30 - 5:30 p.m.

Gregg McConnell, publisher of the Tri-City Herald, Susan Boyle, architectural historian, and other distinguished speakers kick off the 50th Anniversary Celebration with a look back at the building and the role it has played in the region.

Department of Energy Historic Slideshow and Video Presentation

Tuesday, November 10 and Thursday
November 12 at 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

The Department of Energy has called Richland home for more than 50 years. The agency has searched through its photo library and archives to pull together a historic slideshow presentation.

Presentation of the Colors for Veterans Day

Tuesday, November 10 at 8 a.m.

Join the Richland Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 7952 and a representative from U.S. Congressman Dan Newhouse's office for a brief flag ceremony to honor our nation's veterans.

U.S. Courts Naturalization Ceremony

Tuesday, November 17 at 10 a.m.

More than 50 individuals will take the oath of citizenship during this naturalization ceremony hosted by the U.S. Courts.

Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals Hearing

Tuesday, November 17 at 2 - 5 p.m.

Don't miss this historic occasion as the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals will hold hearings for the first time in the Court's history at the Richland U.S. Courthouse and Federal Building.

U.S. Courts Open House

Thursday, November 19 at 3 - 5 p.m.

The U.S. District Court invites you to come learn more about the Federal Court in Richland. Hear the Judges speak from the bench at 3:00 p.m. Guided tours of the Courthouse will follow beginning at 3:20. The Open House will conclude with a reception and some refreshments.
